

CASA MUELLER

Fundadores Lot 223

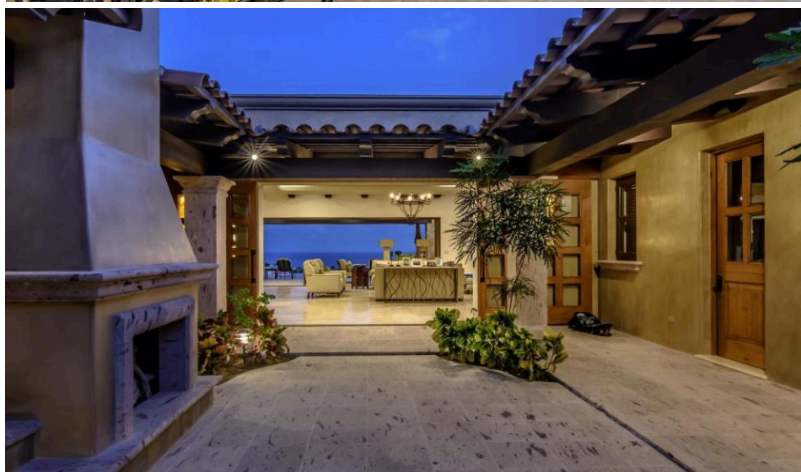

This Antonio Carrera-designed luxury home offers seven beautiful bedrooms and ample outdoor living space; perfect for entertaining generations of family, or hosting a group retreat. A seamless blend of open architecture with expansive lounge and pool space welcomes family and friends with the warmth of the morning sun. Private, exquisitely decorated and with much attention to detail, this unique home offers a multitude of locations for family and friends to gather. For a smaller group, open only the main level interior section with its two ocean view master suites. For a larger group, there are two guest suites off the central entry courtyard, three lower level suites, two with ocean views and a huge family room complete with bar, wine fridge and comfortable sofas for relaxing after a day of deep sea fishing or golf. Upstairs, the open concept great room includes formal dining and living spaces plus a gourmet kitchen featuring top line stainless steel appliances. Carefully considered interior design by Claudia Rayas of El Callejon, includes quality furnishings, decoration and accessories with Mexican flare and color to provide a sense of place. Fundadores Beach Club membership included with purchase includes fitness center, pool, Jacuzzi, bar, restaurant and direct beach access. Puerto Los Cabos golf membership available.
